About Trinity Early Learning Center

The Trinity Early Learning Center is a non-profit, NAEYC-accredited early childhood development program providing loving, trusting care to children from the age of two months through five years. Located at Trinity Presbyterian Church, TELC's mission is to provide superior developmentally appropriate, culturally diverse early childhood education and care for children, designed to foster social and emotional growth; cognitive and academic development; independence and self-esteem.

The TELC Tuition Scholarship Fund provides short- and long-term tuition support for local families in need. Last year, the scholarship fund provided $7000 to five families, ensuring that these children get the best possible care and education in the state.
